THE PIERCES Thirteen Tales of Love and Revenge (LIZARD KING)

Although I have no clue what these gals look like, they sure do sound hot on their new album Thirteen Tales of Love and Revenge. Catherine and Allison Pierce are sisters from New York City via Birmingham, Ala., and this dynamic duo have comprised a dazzling, yet dark mix of everything from psychedelic-tinged folk to heavy pumping dance inspired pop. These songstresses write artsy songs with moments creatively on par with Fiona Apple or Aimee Mann...using flirty instrumentation, lush arrangements and mysterious melodies. The thing separating The Pierces from pop artists today is that they choose substance over style and have the talent to back it up.—
