Sounding grown-up

Teenage sensations in the mid-1990s, Australian trio Silverchair lost traction in the U.S. (but never at home) after four albums. But the band's latest, "Young Modern" (due July 24) has reestablished Daniel Johns and crew as a commercial force, exhibiting a lush, mature sound that has done nothing to diminish their fans' loyalty — at least if February's sold-out shows in L.A. were any indication.

Silverchair, the Wiltern, 3790 Wilshire Blvd., L.A. 7:30 p.m. Saturday. $26. (213) 388-1400.

■ Also 7:30 p.m. Sunday at House of Blues Anaheim, 1530 Disneyland Drive, Anaheim. $22.50 to $25. (714) 778-2583.
